

Rickenbacker's pickup cut-out in the pickguard can vary in the corner radius dimension, sometimes the aftermarket cover can be a little too tight on some pickguards, this can easily be adjusted to fit:

Ric players who want their maximum pickup height can take another few strokes on the back side of each corner to allow the pickup to fit all the way up to it's rim giving another 1 or 2 mm height.

